We are qualified teachers.
We are unemployed. We are on an extendable hunger strike for 96 hours

The exhibition booth for the Taiwan Research Institute (TRI) features several informational elements:

- Top Poster: Titled "Taiwan Research Institute", it includes sections for "Introduction to TRI", "The Research Fields of TRI" (listing Energy Policy, Economic and Environment Development, and Climate Model and Policy Evaluation), "International Participation on Climate Change", and "Resilient Assessment and Climate Policy Evaluation". It also contains a QR code and the text "For more information".
- Right Screen: A monitor displays "The Research Fields" with a circular diagram and lists "Energy Policy", "Economic and Environment Strategies", and "International Participating".
- Bottom Shelf: A white shelf holds promotional materials, including a stack of brochures, a small red water bottle, and a black bag.
